Day 5

The place is perfect, the weather is wonderful, but if you're with the wrong person, a holiday can be a disaster... Joe 28, a flight attendant

Last October I went on holiday to Thailand for two weeks with my girlfriend, Mia. The holiday began well. We spent two days in Bangkok and saw the Floating Market and the Royal Palace. But things went wrong when we left Bangkok. I wanted to stay in hostels, which were basic but clean, but Mia said they were too uncomfortable and so we stayed in quite an expensive hotel. I wanted to experience the local atmosphere but Mia just wanted to go shopping. I thought I knew Mia very well, but you don't know a person until you travel with them. It was awful! We argued about everything. For the last four days we went to Ko Chang, a beautiful island. It was like being in paradise. The weather was lovely and the beaches were wonderful, but we just sunbathed without speaking. We spent our last night back in Bangkok and we went for a drink with some Australians. They were friendly and Mia started flirting with one of the boys. That was the end. When we arrived at Heathrow airport the next day we decided to break up. I took hundreds of photos.

Laura 26, a nurse

Last spring my best friend Isabelle and I booked a holiday in Venice. We rented a small apartment for a week with a fantastic view of the canals. At the last moment another friend, Linda, asked if she could come too. We felt sorry for her because she had problems with her boyfriend, so we said yes. Venice was magical and the weather was perfect, but the holiday was a disaster for one simple reason: Linda was so mean! She has a good job so she's not poor, but she just didn't want to pay for anything. When we went sightseeing she didn't want to go to any museums or galleries that cost money. When we went on a gondola she complained that it was very expensive. When we went to have lunch or dinner she always wanted to go to cheap restaurants or she bought pizzas and ate them in the flat. But the night I invited her and Isabelle out on my birthday, she chose the most expensive things on the menu! The worst thing was that although Isabelle and I paid for the apartment, Linda never once bought us a coffee or a drink. I'd love to go back to Venice one day... but without Linda.

Task 4

Ask group A and B to share few verbs (action words) from the text.

Day 5

Regular (-ed past words)	Irregular (non-ed past words)

Task 5

Pronunciation.

1. Arrived - ends with d sound
2. Booked - ends with t sound
3. Rented - ends with id sound

Task 6

Pronunciation - regular verbs : -ed endings

▶ Listen and repeat the sentences

 tie	We booked a holiday.
	We walked around the town.
 dog	We sunbathed on the beach.
	We argued about everything.
/ɪd/	We rented a flat.
	We decided to break up.

Pronunciation

Say the past simple of these verbs. In which ones is -ed pronounced as /id/arrive ask end invite like love need park start stay

Listen and check

Regular past simple verbs

Remember that we don't normally pronounce the e in -ed. The -ed ending is usually pronounced /t/ or /d/. The difference between these endings is very small. We only pronounce the d in -ed when there is a t or d before it, eg: wanted, ended. With these verbs -ed is /id/
